

Owner: Hartford MDC

Project Name: Demolition of the Former Compost Building

Services: Savin is providing engineering services for the demolition of above grade and sub-surface structural components for the Hartford Water Pollution Control Composting Facility. This project is the first phase of a multi-phased plant wide improvements project.

“Improving Quality of Life”